I stand beside you
And I close my eyes
And for a moment I
See the light
You'll regret that I
Know you love me
You take for granted
What we should be
It's getting harder it's getting dark
There's lots of smoke but there's no spark anymore
And I can feel you fade away
I can see you fading away
And I can feel you fade away
Into the sunset
I don't deserve this, this this- aggravation
Could you tell me what's so hard about a- a conversation
So walk all over me, it's as flat as a board
Take what you need
Don't come around no more
Feel you fade away
I can feel you fade away

And I can see you fade away

You only want
What you can't have
And when I'm gone
You'll want me back

I find it hard
Just to see you, I'm Lost for words, if I could
Only greet you
We were caught in a bad haze with no chance to be one
We're getting from the eye of the storm
It's getting harder it's getting dark
There's lots of smoke but there's no spark anymore
And I can feel you fade away
And I can see you fading away
And I can feel you fade away

Into the sunset

Into the sunset sunset fade away, sunset fade away
