climbing a rope by Hara'kiri Climbing a rope when I was eleven Getting higher and higher until I reached heaven

Surprised by the pleasant tickling inside of me
The patch of fog
The weakness in my knee

Then suddenly
A big explosion of light
The awareness of my wings who brought me into a starry night

It turned out to be my favourite state of mind

So glad I discovered this trick I'll never ever forget my first orgasm in public
