Make it happen
let it fly go and get it I won't mind

but remember you're alone now and no one's gonna catch you when you fall you're really on your own now and no one's gonna need what you can offer anymore still I'm with you day and night

I've got to tell you
I think you're right

I can be so disablading I can be so mean with what I use though I'd like to say I'm trying Sometimes I feel the selfishness inside me sipping through

But down on the corner it's just fine business as usual through the night whatever will happen to our lives down on the corner everything's alright

Makes you wander to get away if no one bothers if no one cares

Is it worth the time we're spending is it really worth the struggle every day what if we should stop pretending that we ever were connected and just go our separate ways

Cause down on the corner it's just fine business as usual through the night
whatever will happen to our lives
down on the corner everything's alright

Under the neon sign Some husbands draws another line Outside the shelter of the bus the street is wild with stolen cars

Teenagers running from the cold Cling to the famous and the far to old Cheap metal braces meet bands of solid gold

So down on the corner it's just fine business as usual through the night
whatever will happen to our lives
down on the corner everything's alright
