I pray
dig every ounce
of faith

I bleed
I burn
ritualize
please help me

help me
help me
help me
help me
help me
help me
help me

I'm careful not to break tripped
out of my mind
It's come to the point where you've lost me
I've got no more inside
It's come to the point where you've lost me
I've got no more inside
Whatcha say?
You're better off without me
you're better off without me
you're better off without me
you're better off without me
You're better off without me!
One simple thing is all I ask stop this why won't you sympathize?

It's come to the point where you've lost me
I've got no more inside
It's come to the point where you've lost me
I've got no more inside

Whatcha say?

you're better off without me
you're better off without me
you're better off without me

you're better off without me
you're better off without me
you're better off without me
