Warriors of leather unchained to rule the night
Ganglands join together to fight the metal fight Speed and fury now delivered to the hungry crowd Trashing like there's no tomorrow, that's what it's about Rages like an earthquake shaking all your heads Death to all the posers, tear then all to shreds Breaking down the barriers we'll let it go tonight Let's all bring the roof down and trash with all our might Speed Merchants decked out in spikes and chains Speed Merchants have metal in their veins Speed Merchants cut loose and bash their brains Speed Merchants we sweat and go insane Furious intentions directed at the stage
A building of aggression now released in rage You raise your hands to feel the awesome power in the air
Your body aches, your neck it breaks, but you don't seem to care
Burning hearts of fire amidst the human mass Intensities reach maximum which we shall now surpass Draining all our energy, stricken with abuse A deadly charge like dynamite, we've got to light the fuse Scorching blaze surrounds them as the metal takes control
It penetrates their willing minds and occupies their souls
Speed Merchants live for pleasure, Speed Merchants live for pain
They live for understanding and sparks to start the flame Speed merchants!
