And it makes me ill
When I see her passing
Does she remember my name?
And it makes me ill
To know she's with him
I'll never know her again
And it makes me ill

I'll tell you anything you wanna know
Oh god, just take her away, yeah

Save your tears for another day
You know how rare it is I get to see your face
Vague reflections of what we had
I know they'll hunt me till they rip my soul a part

Save your tears for another day
You know how rare it is I get to see your face
Vague reflections of what we had
I know they'll kill me in the end
You'll kill, you'll kill me

I'm lost, there's no one here around
I'm lost it'll never be the same
She won't leave my head

And it makes me ill
When I see her passing
Does she remember my name?
And it makes me ill
It makes me, breaks me
I'll never know her again
I'll never know her again
