All change on the merry go line Everybody looking, for a sign Jumping up and down, when the switch goes on Nobody knows where it's coming from I'm here watching, keeping well away I'm going to live it in my own way No mister! Not me! I'm staying here, where it's nice and free In deep water I see the captain on a distant shore He's got a dream, he wants to make it law He's got my number, he's got a plan He'll try to get you, any way he can He wants to own everything he sees But while I'm out there, well he ain't with me Singing... No mister! No way! I got my own Deep water Deep deep water
