When passion shines her blinding light on you
You know my friend, there's nothing
That you can do
Just follow on, behind her veil
Of deepest purple haze
Down
To love's strange ways
And drowning in th ellaughter
As you go
Intoxicating laughter
That spins you high and low
Dangerous times are these
But oh so wonderfully new
Laugh along you fool
Can't you see?
They're laughing at you!
Caught in the haze
Of love's strange ways
Ain't it funny
How it turns
When it's all over
Nothing's learned
Just a passion, and a fool
And a memory that burns
And that's what you get
When you play
With love's strange ways
