(4.33)

She's 24, she's 25

She doesn't know what's true or lies

Where does she go?

Where does she go from here?

He's 21, he's 22

TV crap is all he knew

Where does he go?

Where does he go from here?

She goes to school

She stays at home

Wherever she goes, she feels so alone

Where does they go she says

Where does we go from here?

They're 34, they're 45

They're so obsessed with the car they drive

Where does they go she says

Where does we go from here?

Love is a stranger, with a silicon smile

As you choke on your envy, down the magazine mile

You must look but don't touch

You must buy, but don't feel

One day you will find out

None of it's real

Where do we go, where do we go from here?

Written and performed by Chris Rea (vocals, guitars)
