"Keep"

Visit "Keep" on MotoLyrics.com

There's a hollow at the front of your neck where I've been
And I stay there for a while and I breath... you in Took a walk on the palm of your hands with my fingers
I tasted the rain as it fell from your hair onto my face

We're in between times
No senses, only minds
Joined his veins with my heart
One life twice beating

Watch me see you the way that I do and you'll know
That I keep thoughts of you tucked in my pillow
And I wonder with wings that I keep in my dreams
Never to come to the meaning of what all this means

Means that could break stars
Show me who you are
Can this go to
One life twice, one life twice,
One life twice beatin'
