We long to taste forbidden fruit
I turn away but everywhere I look is you
Searching for the passion I found through you

A force of nature
A hurricane with just a word
A waterfall with all of the hurt
This love is, this love is a force of nature

A tidal wave caught in a storm
That washed me up onto your shore
This love is, this love is

As insecure as you are
I built a wall so nobody could find my heart
But we found ourselves where we tried to hide

A force of nature
A hurricane with just a word
A waterfall with all of the hurt
This love is, this love is a force of nature

A tidal wave caught in a storm
That washed me up onto your shore
This love is

You are my oxygen, a love that never dies
We're crossing rivers at sunrise

A hurricane with just a word
A waterfall with all of the hurt
This love is, this love is a force of nature

A tidal wave caught in a storm
That washed me up onto your shore
This love is, this love is a force of nature
