Your ghost still wanders this earth
At night I constantly hurt

I can't sleep, I can't sleep
Your name still reigns in my room
Don't leave me, don't leave me
Where I can't find you

You drain my heart drop by drop
From the night till the dawn you can take what you want
You lay the cards one by one
You're my pleasure and pain, you're my destiny when

Night falls, night falls, night falls, night falls
Falls on my haunted heart
Night falls, night falls, night falls, night falls
Falls on my haunted heart

This love is blessed with a curse
You gave me faith, took my worth

I love you, I hate you
You know I'll never find peace
You thrill me, you kill me
Release the tight leash

You drain my heart drop by drop
From the night till the dawn you can take what you want
You lay the cards one by one
You're my pleasure and pain, you're my destiny when

Night falls, night falls, night falls, night falls
Falls on my haunted heart
Night falls, night falls, night falls, night falls
Falls on my haunted heart

Falls on my haunted heart
Falls on my haunted heart

You drain my heart drop by drop
From the night till the dawn you can take what you want

You lay the cards one by one
You're my pleasure and pain, you're my destiny when

Night falls, night falls, night falls
Falls on my haunted heart
Night falls, night falls, night falls
Falls on my haunted heart

You drain my heart drop by drop
From the night till the dawn you can take what you want

Night falls, night falls, night falls, night falls
Falls on my haunted heart
Night falls, night falls, night falls, night falls
Falls on my haunted heart
