Destroyer of checkbooks destroyer of men
Destroyer of home life destroyer of friends
Destroyer of credit destroyer of trust
She's a bad dead end
You cannot be her friend

Destroyer of loving destroyer of hope
One week with her and you'll want the rope
You'll pray that she's leaving and not coming back
She's a bad dead end
Your heart will never mend

She took all my money and took all my fun
She borrowed my car keys and then stole my gun
She wasted my credit I'm losing my home
And now I'm just praying she'll leave me alone

She left me here lonely and now I know why
That she'll prove you wrong that a man can't cry
There should be a warning on a woman like her
That she's a destroyer and now you have heard

Destroyer of checkbooks destroyer of men
Destroyer of home life destroyer of friends
Destroyer of credit destroyer of trust
She's a bad dead end
You cannot be her friend

Destroyer of loving destroyer of hope
One week with her and you'll want the rope
You'll pray that she's leaving and not coming back
She's a bad dead end
Your heart will never mend

When she shows up you should send her packing
I'm warning you son she'll be attacking
She steal your pride at a last lonely meal
Then write you a note and ask you how it feels
Then walk right on out with a laugh and a smile
But it doesn't sink in at least for awhile
She'll take all your money then leave you to die
Til that last final moment when you see the lie

Destroyer of checkbooks destroyer of men
Destroyer of home life destroyer of friends
Destroyer of credit destroyer of trust
She's a bad dead end
You cannot be her friend

Destroyer of loving destroyer of hope
One week with her and you'll want the rope
You'll pray that she's leaving and not coming back
She's a bad dead end
Your heart will never mend

You're a loser inside her world
If you're thinking that she's your girl
Run right away when she gives you that smile
Or you'll be sorry after awhile

Destroyer of checkbooks destroyer of men
Destroyer of home life destroyer of friends
Destroyer of credit destroyer of trust
She's a bad dead end
You cannot be her friend

Destroyer of loving destroyer of hope
One week with her and you'll want the rope
You'll pray that she's leaving and not coming back
She's a bad dead end
Your heart will never mend
