It was Friday night there was nothing to do
So I was chillin' with an ice cold brew
Then I saw her she was pretty as a picture
She came in you could hardly miss her
Just one look I knew I had to act
Or I'd be having a heart attack
I walked on over and I said hi
Looked into those sweet blue eyes

I can tell you she's such a teaser
But afterwards she's such a pleaser

I sat small talk everything fit right
She joked I laughed fun on a Friday night
Saw her look but she didn't make a sound
And now I'm standing on solid ground
Just one look we knew we had to act
Or we'd be sharing a heart attack
We walked on out and we went on home
Somewhere quiet we could be alone

I can tell you she's such a teaser
But afterwards she's such a pleaser
