NO DEADLINE

Something made me come here after all In retrospect i do admit to have certain flaws Maybe i'm just repeating what everybody else is saying, but that doesn't make it less true for me it's still the same, the philosophies don't change just because you do i'm the part of you that you try to suppress never to surface in your consciousness i just exist to show others how not to live there's no deadline for me to settle down you have to destroy to erect, to rebuild another intellect maybe i'm just repeating what everybody else is saying
i'm a drinker but i'm a thinker palace-brothers here ÃfÂ`s to you i'm the part of you that you try to suppress never to surface in your consiousness
i just exist to show others how not to live
