The hunters skulking tonight
A menace through the cross streets
Under wirewebs in three's and four's
Armed with their best clothes
Rage misplacers
Making a pitch for your night
Flat lives drive to step to
To step to everything

Searching for something raw
Cell phone salesman-types, act the toughest hype
SUV's like Bradley's
Someone send them all to Sadr City...it won't be long

A GDP empire leads
To Saturday hunting
Democracy is fading on me
This just might fail after all

From the Southern hemisphere
The resentment is coming in clear
Understand where that's coming from
You pick a side to be on...it won't be long
