SELFDESTRUCTIVE TODAY

Well i think it might be time again To see if i can still take the abuse Laziness is what is killing me 'cause now i have the time to fill the holes
But i feel no sadness
In this grown up world i feel self-destructive today Yes today is the day for something new To see things i never saw before But i feel there's nothing left for me
And it's me that will self-destruct again, and again 'cause i feel no sadness In this grown up world i feel self-destructive today I wasted all this time To find the palace of wisdom on the excess road
But i know i can, i know i will get there somehow 'cause i still feel self-destructive today
