SUPERFICIAL

I wanna see all my friends todayI haven't been out for a week or twoAnd nobody seems to be missing meNo superficial talk, i wanna listen to what they have to sayAnd sometimes it's so much fun i don't wanna leaveI appreciate the times that we spendTalking about how life's gonna endI wanna see, i wanna see all my friends todayIt feels like weeks since i've been outAnd nobody seems to be missing meNo superficial talk get some jacky and we never stopAt times it's so much fun i don't wanna leaveI appreciate the times that we spendTalking about how life's gonna endI like being with my friends'cause they are the only ones that seem to understandIt's hard to find people that you really want to meetAlthough we don't do much it's enough for me
