Whoah

And I won't feel your breath on my neck
It's like an alarm
And I can't love you in this ghost town
We're all dead and we're all gone
And I haven't called you up and pulled you
And I hear you're all alone
But it can't be love if you keep asking
You keep asking

I stopped breathing
Will you catch me now
Let me down
You take over baby can I miss my flight
And I come back to you tonight
Is someone out there

Don't say that you're the only lonely one
You know I'm the one who set the sun
Oh dear
Collaborate our fears
Another turn out here away
Oh you could never let me down
I got the feeling that I let you down

I stopped breathing
Will you catch me now
Let me down
You take over baby can I miss my flight
And I come back to you tonight
Is someone out there

You are the loneliness
But I'm in my hotel bed
See I think of you all of the time
And when you swore I should pray you were right
Sometimes I feel like I'm never alone
Like I can feel you moving through my bones
And you're not when you're sleeping
Cause everyone's dreaming

We're all under the same moon

She said I'll follow you to LA
She said I'll follow you to LA
She's gonna follow you to LA
To LA, yeah

I stopped breathing
Will you catch me now
Let me down
You take over baby can I miss my flight
And I come back to you tonight
Is someone out there

Don't stop breathing
Cause we're alive
And we'll get by
I'll come over baby can I miss my flight
And I come back to you tonight
Is someone out there

I turn my terror to the words I don't remember
Where I've been I come around
I come around (I come around)
You spun my mind around so fast
Do you recall the things I asked?
Baby I'll be there
