Don't think I don't know you're gone
I heard the car turn on
I'm not asleep
And although all the lights are out
I know without a doubt
You're not discreet
I heard the voice
I heard the call...that's right
Throw it away or keep it all tonight
Chorus:
So I won't go but she can't stay
If you go that way you're on your own
But if she won't go then I can't stay
I'll make your bed you'll sleep alone
Better hurry home
Baby do you see me as a fool
This game has just one rule
That's not to cheat
Maybe some are born to lose
But I've got the right to choose
And you're in knee-deep
This has to stop
I thought we could make this work
Like it or not one of us is gonna hurt
Chorus
Better hurry home
Chorus
Better hurry home
Hurry Home
