Well I'm stood out with my brother On a tree lined avenue I see the strangest little creature Coming into my view And I say to mysef, I say Man I'm going to get me some Of that bright little angel Shines like the morning sun Well my brother steps in Faster than light Sweet talks this angel Clean out of sight Say hey you You with that look in your eye Hey you You with that look in your eye She moves like a river From her head down to her toes Less a way of walking More a total flow

Oh I wander if she knows What she's doing to me and my brother

From our heads down to our toes

And I say to myself I wonder

Well he's up there on the corner now

Playing up "The Romeo"

Like only he know how

Say hey you

You with that look in your eye

Hey you

You with that look in your eye
