All eyes on me
It's nine AM and you will finally see
With friends like these
It's easier to breathe, easier to believe

We are all dreamers
Who are trying to exist
Living like lovers, live like scripts
In a summer morning fashion
With steady, shaking hands
We can lay beneath this safety
That these evenings bring lately

All eyes on me
It's nine AM and you will finally see
With friends like these
It's easier to breathe, easier to believe

We have been designing
This plan for weeks and week
And when I'm done sketching
This pencil will be dead but you will see

Exactly who I am
Let's put the worst of us in this box
And break the key off in the lock

All eyes on me
It's nine AM and you will finally see
With friends like these
It's easier to breathe, easier to believe

When you're down and out
Consumed by fear and doubt
You're bound to feel something
You haven't felt yet
Breathe in, breathe out, breathe in, breathe out
You've gotta calm down

All eyes on me
It's nine AM and you will finally see
With friends like these

It's easier to breathe, easier to believe
