doom da da da da doomda doo da doom da da da da doomda dee doom da da da da doomda da da da da da

stop everything
look up to the sky
these cries solstice born thoughts of you

look up to the stars sometimes you need them sunshine requiem

there's a hole in the southern skies tonight
as i watch you smile
these things that supposedly happen for reasons got none at all

all your friends...
they came to see the show
walking away with my heart and my smile x2 hope that you'll find your soul hope that your there to remind me of mine hope that you'll find yourself again

leaves falling indefinitely after the season something small

all you friends
all those things i wish i didn't know someone teach me how to let this go let it go
