Each day this concrete cave it takes our love away you're holding on too tight the city won't make this right and i swear

that the proof is everywhere romance isn't scared and out hearts are beating cold like we were old

don't row past the tracks we'll park our car out back while natures radio plays music in our home but oh me
it's a blue bird that i see and he's got you in his beak and he'll bring you home to me when you are old

if youre lost
a chorus of our house we'll sing a tale so big it brings that blue bird home to me with you in his beak
a tale so big it keeps a blue bird in my ear singing romance isn't scared
