Sometimes I find myself stuck in the middle with nowhere to turn
So I pull it in and tell myself it all works out But then again
no one helps when things go wrong
So I saved myself saved myself learned
how to Swim

Sometimes you find yourself stuck in the crowd with nowhere to turn
So you go against What everybody feels
But feelings burn
Then you'll see
That no one person
Rules the world
You tell yourself
That everybody learns
how to Swim

With it don't fight the tide
Don't fight the tide
Just swim with it, but first...

You put your feet on the ground
I can't pick you up every time
You're falling down
No I'm not your mother or
Your father

You put your feet on the ground
I can't pick you up every time you're falling down
No I can't go any further
But I know

It's hard to do the right thing

in the right place
when you want to do something else in their face

Do what I do don't turn the back and walk away no
do what I do and learn

how to Swim

With it don't fight the tide
Don't fight the tide
Just swim with it, but first...
I can't pick you up every time
You're falling down
No I'm not your mother or
Your father

You put your feet on the ground
You're falling down
No, no...

Just learn how to Swim
With it don't fight the tide,
just swim with it, but first...

You put your feet on the ground
I can't pick you up every time
You're falling down
No, I'm not your mother or
Your father

You put your feet on the ground
I can't pick you up every time
You're falling down

Put your feet on the ground
Won't you put your feet
on the ground,
no I can't pick you up Every time you're falling down
Put your feet on the ground

And learn how to Swim
With it, don't fight the tide

Just swim.....

Just swim...
