I could move to hollywood (yeah) get my teeth capped i know i could be a big star on the silver screen just like james dean i could be a star i could climb the corporate ladder buy, sell, and liquidate maybe be just like the beatles melodic rocking heavyweights i could learn to sing and dance if i only had a chance i could be a big rock star i could be anything i wanted to i could do anything but one thing's true never gonna be as big as Jesus never gonna hold the world in my hand

never gonna build the promise land but that, that's all right, o.k. with me (bop bop bop bop ba dop, ooh!) i could build a tower to heaven get on top and touch the sky i could write a million songs all designed to glorify i could be about as good good as any human could but that won't get me by
