By and By and By I share the meaning
I will never be that cold again
I will never tell you to get sober
I will always be your true friend
If you want to fly
Then I'll meet you there
If you're doing fine
Then why are you so scared

By and by and by I've been the victim
All the days go by I share the name
I will never tell you that's an order
I will always remain the same
If you want to fly
Then I'll meet you there
If you're doing fine
Then why are you so scared
If it's black or white
Without a sound
Then I dont want to know

By and by and by I've shared the feeling
I will never be so bold again
I will never tell you to get sober
I will always be your true friend

If you want to fly
Then I'll meet you there
If you're doing fine
Then why are you so scared
If it's black or white
Or without a sound
If it's black or white
Or without a sound
Then I dont want to know

By and by and by I share the meaning
I will never be that cold again
I will never tell you to get sober
I will always be your true friend
