You tell your friends to lie until the end
You can have them, you can have them
Tell me who's really right for you
What do you want me to do
Spell It out for you
You tell your friends, I heard you tell your friends
You can have them, you can have them
Tell me who's really right for you
Well, now that I think back
Now that I want you back
I hear your name, you come to my mind, right through my mind
I hear your name, you come to my mind
When I hear your name, you come to my mind, right through my mind
I bear your name
Things I'd like to say, things I'd like to say
Words got in the way
I feel her slowly, I feel her slowly
Slowly slipping away from me
I said you matter to me
