You - you're always there for me
When I need you most
Day and night you're by my side
Protecting me

When I feel like crashing down
You seem to be around
There you are, you're not that far
"cause

Whenever, wherever, baby
You'll protect me no matter what
Hold me tight, with all your might
And...
You'll never let me go
Protecting me

You - you listen to me when
I speak out loud and you
You know right when, my heart's been bent

When my lifes tumbling around
You take me off the ground
You tell me everything's okay

Whenever, wherever, baby
You'll protect me no matter what
Hold me tight, with all your might
You'll never let me go
You'll never let me go
(You'll never let me go)
You'll never let me go
(You'll never let me go)

When its my turn (My turn)
To help you out (Help you out)
I gladly lift you up without a doubt

Whenever...
Whenever, wherever, baby
You'll protect me, no matter what
Hold me tight with all your might

And I'll never let me go (Let me go)

Whenever, wherever baby
I'll protect you, no matter what
Hold you tight, with all my might
And I'll never let you go (Let you go)

You - you're always there for
When I need you most
Day and night, you're by my side
Protecting me
