You, You're always there for me
When I need you most
Day and night you're by my side
Protecting me
When I feel like crashing down
You seem to be around
There you are
You're not that far cuz

Whenever, wherever baby
You'll protect me
No matter what
Hold me tight with all your might And you'll never let me go
Protecting me

You listen to me when
I speak out loud and you
You know right when my heart's been bent
When my lifes tumbling around
You take me off the ground
You tell me everythings ok

Whenever, wherever baby
You'll protect me
No matter what
Hold me tight with all your might You'll never let me go
You'll never let me go
You'll never let me go
You'll never let me go

When its my turn (My turn)
To help you out (Help you out)
I gladly lift you up without a doubt

(Whenever) Whenever, wherever baby
You'll protect me
No matter what
Hold me tight with all your might You'll never let me go
(Let me go)

(Whenever) Whenever, wherever baby

I'll protect you
No matter what
Hold you tight, with all my might
And I'll never let you go (Let you go)

You, you're always there for me
When I need you most
Day and night you're by my side
Protecting me (echo 3x)
Protecting me (echo 3x)
