Into Your hands I commit my spirit
Into Your heart I place mine
Into Your will I submit all I am
As I let go peace I find

And while the background is falling
You'll find the place I can stand

Lean on Your understanding
Lean on everything You say
Lean on divine intention
Lean on every word You utter

Into Your hands I submit my troubles
Into Your world I'll unfold
And with Your strength I'll replace my weakness
As I lie down, You restore my soul

And while the background is falling
You've found the place I can stand
(In Your heavens, I will)

Lean on Your understanding
Lean on everything You say
Lean on divine intention
Lean on every word You utter

Lean on Your understanding
Lean on everything You say
Lean on divine intention
Lean on every word You utter

And while the background is falling
You've found the place I can stand
(In Your heavens, I will)

Lean on Your understanding
Lean on everything You say
Lean on divine intention
Lean on every word You utter

Lean on Your understanding

Lean on everything You say
Lean on divine intention
Lean on every word You utter

Lean on Your understanding
Lean on everything You say
Lean on divine intention
Lean on every word You utter

Lean on Your understanding
Lean on everything You say
Lean on divine intention
Lean on every word You utter
