You can have the money, wheel it, deal it, win it all You can have a lot of fashion, you can even own the mall
You can change your face into the person of your dreams Trim your nose and dye your hair and change your eyes from blue to green

You can be a model, cover every magazine
You can walk on every stage or be the host of MTV
You can win the medals, run it, swim it perfectly You could have a turn at Indy, you could even own the team

We're never gonna see God if we keep looking for vogue
We could gain the whole world but still be losing our soul
We don't need it 'cuz God has given us our needs
We don't want it, shouldn't He be our priority? We don't need it
Jesus said to leave it all behind, let's keep our eyes
On things above 'cuz we don't need to want to need it

You can get a job on Wall Street, have more money than you've seen You can buy administrations and you can even own the queen
You can own a castle, oily paintings on the wall Build a suite for every pleasure, have a disco, host a ball

Drive a Lamborghini fast as time and painted red Leather phone and matching fax and color TV's overhead
Take your yacht to Rio, fly your jet up to Cancun Screamin' down the highway like a rocket to the moon

We're never gonna see God if we keep looking for
vogue
We could gain the whole world but still be losing our
soul

We don't need it 'cuz God has given us our needs
We don't want it, shouldn't He be our priority? We don't need it
Jesus said to leave it all behind, let's keep our eyes
On things above 'cuz we don't need to want to need it

vogue
We could gain the whole world but still be losing our
soul
We don't need it 'cuz God has given us our needs
We don't want it, shouldn't He be our priority? We don't need it
Jesus said to leave it all behind, let's keep our eyes
On things above 'cuz we don't need to want to need it
