If you wink, wink, wink at the kid in the mirror

he will wink, wink, wink right back at you.

If you clap, clap, clap for the kid in the mirror

she will clap, clap, clap along with you.

Whatever you do, the kid in the mirror will do it, too.

If you jump, jump, jump for the kid in the mirror

he will jump, jump, jump along with you.

If you dance, dance, dance for the kid in the mirror

she will dance, dance, dance along with you.

Whatever you do, the kid in the mirror will do it, too.

And if youre feeling sad and blue

the kid in the mirror feels bad, too.

So you should smile, smile, smile at the kid in the mirror and he will smile, smile, smile right back at you.

Whatever you do, the kid in the mirror will do it, too.

So wink and clap and jump and dance and smile

You gotta love, love, love the kid in the mirror.

Love, love, love the kid in the mirror
