There I was ten years old waitin' in my room for him to come home and I just knew he'd be so mad though I begged my mother not to, she told my dad.
There was no denyin' I let him down but instead of being angry he put his arms around me and said in the sunlight or the rain brightest nights or darkest days I'll always feel the same way whatever road you may be on know your never too far gone my love is there wherever you may be just remember that you'll always be my baby.

There I was twenty-one oh I was so ashamed of what I'd done on a country road parked one night what started out so innocent crossed the line there was no denyin'
I let God down
but instead of being angry he let his love surround me and I heard

know your never too far gone my love is there wherever you may be just remember that you'll always be my baby yeah yeah.

There he is my little man I'm sure he'll get in trouble every now and then and I pray to God that when he does I'll be just as understanding as my father was 'cause the last thing that I want to do is let him down so instead of being angry I'm gonna throw my arms around him and I'll say

I'll always feel the same way yeah whatever road you may be on
be my baby
