One simple wish keeps me alive
All I need now is a list'ning sky
One simple wish to carry me through
I trust my secret is safe with you.

Silently, awaking
Want to feel the coming of the sun
Hear the whispers in the wind
Be dancing with the dawn
as the music plays again
I'll sail away upon these tears
It's my life to live
I've been waiting all this time

For one simple wish before I close my eyes
Dreaming of long lost lullabies
One simple wish as I fall asleep
Somewhere inside my heart still beats

Silently, awaking
Want to feel the coming of the sun
Hear the whispers in the wind
Be dancing with the dawn
as the music plays again
I'll sail away upon these tears
It's my life to live
I've been waiting all this time
For one simple wish

For one simple wish before I close my eyes
