Dont move Im right here
Ill stay by your bedside
No I wont go anywhere
If I could Id place this all on me
Just to give you a fighting chance

All these tubes and machines
Hold me back from you
I sit here thinking is this all
That they can do
I dont want you to leave no
No please dont go

There there its fine
We dont get to choose

What happens in this life
There there just breathe
Its not as hard as it seems
There there its fine
We dont get to choose
What happens in this life
There there just breathe
And get some rest tonight

I wish I could save you
And take this all away
Id put the cancer deep inside my veins
