Watch out for those girls
The ones that go after you heart
They dig inside your chest
And slowly tear you apart
They dont care what you say
They dont care how you feel
They're there to break your heart
And leave before it heals

Cause girls are the devil
And that will never change

They want you today
But tomorrow their minds will change
Oh, girls are the devil
They're evil in disguise
So boys watch out for those devils
And dont fall for their lies
Dont fall for their lies
