Why, are, these feelings all locked inside?
Cant, do much else to compromise
All those feelings I had for you
Why the disregard?
Lost something you never had?
I was close to you
But you were too close to home
Time to wake up, and,
Time to realise,
that, you?re not always on your own

I?ll always be there for you

There?s, no, limit to reasoning
Because, now, I understand everything
And, I hope everything?s okay

Why the disregard?
Lost something you never had?
I was close to you
But you were too close to home
Time to wake up, and,
Time to realise,
that, you?re not always on your own

I?ll always be there for you
No matter what we go through

I?ll always be there for you
No matter what we go through
Know that I?ll always know you
