I can't believe things worked out this way for me,
I know I'm falling but just how's this gona be? When I think of what we had,
My dreams are see-through
Transparent in your mind,
What we had,
Could melt your heart but,
Everything's so grey, I can't believe things worked out this way for me,
I know I'm falling but just how's this gona be? When I think of what we had,
The dreams are see-through
Transparent in your mind,
What we had,
Could melt your heart but,
Everything's so grey, What we had,
Could melt your heart but,
It's transparent in your mind,
You know that I think and Deny, But,
Everything is so grey.
