What happened to us
Whered the love go
I tried to fix this, you already know
What happened to your smile
What happened to your laugh
You gave me your all
And I only gave half

You yell at me and I fire back
Its hard to retreat when youre under attack
I say things I shouldnt
And you lose your cool
Its like were weilding swords
In a words only duel

Ive apoligzed for the way I acted
I looked you in the eyes

So you knew i meant it
Please dont go
I swear I can change
Yeah, you know
Know I can change

I hear the sound
Of a message from you
Its says we take a break
Either that or were through
I dont understand you
And its come to this?
I dont understand you
I dont
