I've got a brand new attitude
Out with the old,
In with the new.
I bet this takes you by surprise.
You filled my head up,
Full with smoke.
You smothered me, and I choked.
But I've made better decisions
This time.

I am on my own.
I'm stepping out of my comfort zone
I've left this all behind.
I'm really reay, ready this time.

I've got these words
Stuck in my throat,
As if they're ready to explode
But I keep my tongue
Bitten this time.
I've made decisions I can take
If you were me then you would break
Sometimes I feel like
I'm destined to fail.
