Passionate, about something that's always been there,
Agree that it's much too fair,
Slip into a comfort zone and numb your sweetness,

Can't you feel this building up inside my head?
To think I'm losing but instead,
I'll fight this off,
And be complete in you,

Watch yourself,
You know that I'll always care,
Blissfully unaware,
Of the fact you should know,
I'll always mean this,

Can't you feel this building up inside your heart,
Torn right through and ripped apart,
I can't do this to us anymore,
Won't do it,
I can't do it any more,

Can't you feel this building up inside my head?
To think I'm losing but instead,
I'll fight this off,
And be complete in you.
