you take your chances, you play the game walk like a man and you talk the same i met a girl, she mentioned your name keep on smiling, she's still your friend i'm happy that you come down here to see me you always make me smile happy that you come down here to see me you know i like your style do you believe in everything you hear when they're talking about me nobody is to blame, i'd do the same again at the time i was so afraid i'm happy.....
the green green grass is dancing with the breeze
the green green grass is dancing with the breeze and it makes me feel so good it makes me feel so good i can hear you call my name and i know things will never be the same i'm happy.....
