I'm going to Carolina
Taking that hard, rough road
I'm going to circle the river of Jordan
'Cause I just want to see where it flows

21 days on the road
Wondering where we're going to go from here
21 days on the road
I'd go home but my home's right here

I'm waking up on this sidewalk
Next to some place I've never seen
Well, I hope that people come to see us
And I hope they fall in love with me

21 days on the road
Wondering where we're going to go from here
21 days on the road
I'd go home but my home's right here

There's lightning up on the horizon
The Lord is speaking loud and clear tonight
And I'm thinking about a girl in Selma
She wants me back in Texas by tonight

21 days on the road
Wondering where we're going to go from here
21 days on the road
I'd go home but my home's right here

21 days on the road
Wondering where we're going to go from here
21 days on the road
I'd go home but my home's right here
