(Willy Braun - Rachel Bourne - Matt Urry)

She never gave a reason for leaving
Just packed her things and said goodbye
I guess she just got tired of believing
In the dreams of a dreamer such as I.

Usually I'm not left in this position
Most the time it's me who says goodbye
You never dropped a hint that you're going
Naturally it came as a surprise.

Sittin' in a run down dive in Austin
Anticipating pain from losing you
Well, it hasn't hit me yet
It'll be here you can bet.

I'm sitting here waitin' on the blues
I hate to get advice when I don't ask it
It's what I m getting here tonight
The old man says 'cause I'm young I'm foolish.

Since he's old I guess he must be right
Said I should try to forget about you
I know that's not left for me to choose
Who knows you might come back but until you do.

Guess I'll sit here waitin' on the blues
Sittin' in a run-down dive in Austin
This old man's tellin' me that I can't lose
But I guess he s wrong 'cause I already lost you.
Oh, I'm sitting here waitin on the blue.

--- Instrumental ---

Sittin' in a run-down dive in Austin
You left me here with nothing left to lose
This delayed misery, you know it's damn near killing me
I can spend a lifetime waiting on the blues.

I can spend a lifetime waiting on the blues...
