Something tells me your sex's so good,
You say that we should fuck it, yes, we should
Take it where he won't,
Take it where he can't,
Baby, fuck your man, let me get you at Ah!

You know you're the shit,
That's why you stay up to date.
You keep it so tight, you keep the money straight.
You the shit, it's irrelevant,
You kill the competition, babe,
Ain't no evidence, you say Oh!

You don't need to fuck with him,
Because he's so lame,
So you need a winner, babe,
Let's change the whole game.

'cause baby, I'm up in your body right
And do it all night, do it, do it all night,
'cause you'll be cursing while you're busting all night,
We're sexing all night, we're filming all night.

I'll be of no reclaim, babe,
I took away your pain, babe.

Look, if you ain't busting, you ain't doing this job,
If my toes don't curl, you ain't really a star.
Don't be afraid to be a freak,
Bet I won't be afraid to eat the peach.
That pain is pleasure, I penetrate,
Then I devastate, I don't ever hesitate.
No second guessing, this is sex lesson,
Already making reservations for your next session.

Been with quite a few women in my lifetime,
Nothing serious, though, just a nice time,
I'm interested, can you tell?
I took a shower in money, you like the smell?

I'm just kidding, I'm just wishing
You was bucket ass naked, cooking in the kitchen.
You can't buy loyalty, maybe a crime,
But you can't buy loyalty.

You're a queen in my eyes, I see you.

You know you're the shit,
That's why you stay up to date.
You keep it so tight, you keep the money straight.
You the shit, it's irrelevant,
You kill the competition, babe,
Leave no evidence, you say Oh!

You don't need to fuck with him,
Because he's so lame,
So you need a winner, babe,
Let's change the whole game.

'cause baby, I'm up in your body right
And do it all night, do it, do it all night,
'cause you'll be cursing while you're busting all night,
We're sexing all night, we're filming all night.

I'll be of no reclaim, babe,
I took away your pain, babe.
