[Verse 1]

As the dawn breaks, I see your face
No conditions in this safe place
Smell the coffee brewing, I'm smiling to myself
Wouldn't trade this moment, for anything else
Feels like lately, the world's been so crazy
And it took some time to realize

[Chorus 1]

That it's you that brings me home again
Like the tide that brings the boats back in
All I need is you right by my side
Family matters

[Verse 2]

There's been darkness, there's been lighter days
It all came together, when we shed our rock 'n' roll ways
And it took some time but now I realize

[Chorus 2]

That it's you that brings me home again
Like the tide that brings the boats back in
All I need is you right by my side
Like the morning brings another day
And the good in you will find a way
All I need is you right by my side
Family matters, family matters
Family matters, family matters

[Bridge]

And when it all comes crashing down
Like I know it sometimes will
I hang on, cause I believe

[Chorus 2]

It's you that brings me home again
Like the tide that brings the boats back in
All I need is you right by my side
Like the morning brings another day
And the good in you will find a way

All I need is you right by my side
Family matters, family matters
Family matters, family matters
