'if I should die this very moment I wouldn't feel it because I have been numbed by the pain of you're own demise
what a surprise
it was to see you lying there lifeless, motionless like the beating in my heart'

Chorus

I need you
I need you like the knife in my heart to unite us, once again to bring us to the start of a new beginning because this isn't the same with out you in my life im going insane

Verse 2

I cant go on now,
my tears are running dry, no rain falling from my skie.
Like a poison that spreads all I can think about is death day by day the need grows and so does the want for my love back tho I no that your eyes wont ever open again and eventually I will meet my end.

Chorus x2
