They left her alone again
Why is she weeping?
Alone and lost with out her friends
The knife cuts deep shes bleeding
But no one sees her
But no one needs her
They left her alone again
The scars didn't heal from last time
She feels so much pain she knows that
They won't pay for this crime.

Chorus:
She's so lost,
She's so scared
She was hurting
But noone cared
She was screaming
No one heard her shout
She's still living
Living in doubt.

Verse 2:
They left her alone again
just when she needed them most they didn't listen to what she said
invisible, she's a ghost
But no one sees her
But no one needs her
They left her alone again
She's getting tired of waiting the scars get bigger and deeper
All of the pain in her life and shes hating
She lost all her worth now no one will keep her.

Chorus.
