You were bad but
do you feel it?
And in the hindsight
you don't see it
And it's a shame
you were forsaken
with the traps
set so well hidden
And I know all whales can sing
With the shouting
you hold me up again
If you're the highway
I'm the pavement
Through back door
from the existing
And all the wind blows neverending
And I know all whales can sing
Cut all this out
We shall not be turning lightly

into the wind
and never again
hear the song end
of the ocean
The trip is long but you will prosper
you're not alone, boy
you have a father
and there's a lesson
they have given
and underwater
I can listen
And I know all whales can sing
There is enough for when you come down
Into the water
you will hide out
for the changing
of what is sacred Oh to the father
the hope that he will read it
And I know all whales can sing
Cut all this out
We shall not be
turning lightly

into the wind

and never again

hear the song end

of the ocean

I know all whales can sing

And I know all whales can sing!
